JUNE 25-26, 2024 — BRENTWOOD

WHEN & WHERE

WHAT'S IT ALL ABOUT?	THCA is excited to announce our new Directors of Nursing Seminar! This impactful course will be tailored for all current and aspiring long-term care DONs. Hear numerous industry experts cover the most pressing topics in the life of a DON, including strategic sessions on regulation, infection and risk prevention, staffing, management and leadership coaching, current industry standards, developing a culture of safety, quality assurance and performance improvement (QAPI), and much more.
SEMINAR PRESENTERS	Crystal Bowens , AHCA/NCAL vice president of regulatory and clinical services, has served in healthcare since 1996 and spent the past 16 years in the post-acute care sector. She holds board certification in gerontology, is a licensed nursing home administrator and holds a master of science in nursing and master and doctor of health administration.
	Courtney Bishnoi , AHCA/NCAL vice president of quality and programs, is a national expert in perform- ance excellence with a passion for strategic planning and systems-based performance improvement. She has led AHCA/NCAL's efforts related to COVID-19 testing and vaccine distribution in long-term care facilities.
	Nina Monroe , THCA/TNCAL director of quality & regulatory affairs, oversees the association's efforts regarding state and federal regulations, compliance, quality initiatives and survey enforcement.
	Darius McDonald , THCA/TNCAL director of membership services, oversees the facilitation of THCA/TNCAL's planning & implementation of membership operations, strategic processes, conferences, continuing education through learning & development, and special department programs.
